

A DEEP DIG: Guests at a South Perth ceremony this week were quick to pick up the tensions on The Hill when Labor MLA Bill Thomas dug a token hole for a new office block. As the spade hit the sand Liberal MLA Richard Court yelled: "Make it six feet deep." But Thomas was giving nothing away. His "Who for, Richard?" means we'll have to wait until the election to find out.